

State of Washington

JOB OPPORTUNITY

Recruitment # ML-144-2000-OC-LL

Open to the Public

STATIONARY ENGINEER 2 - INTERMITTENT

$14.59 - 16.86 per hour (range 41E)

LOCATION

This register will be used to fill vacancies as they occur at Maple Lane School in Centralia, Washington.

DUTIES

Responsible for overall operation and maintenance of high pressure heating plant consisting of one or more boilers up to 150 h.p. each or tends high pressure power boiler system consisting of two or more boilers over 150 h.p. each.

HOW TO APPLY

Send a completed Washington State job application to:

Maple Lane School
20311 Old Highway 9 SW
Centralia, Washington 98531

Initial screening will be based solely on your completed application, which may also include continuations of your employment history on additional sheets using the application format. This is the only document we will use to determine whether you meet the requirements for this recruitment. Other attachments, including resumes, will not be considered in making this determination. We will not accept any additional information after this recruitment closes. Be sure to keep a copy of your completed application and any attachments, as they will not be returned.

WHO MAY APPLY

This recruitment is open to anyone who meets the minimum qualifications. The State of Washington is an equal opportunity employer. Women, racial and ethnic minorities, persons of disability, persons over 40 years of age, and disabled and Vietnam era veterans are encouraged to apply.

NOTE: The Department of Social and Health Services strives to create a working environment that encourages creative leadership, teamwork, and respects cultural and ethnic diversity.

INTERMITTENT STATUS DEFINITION

Employment without any understanding of continuity, fitting no particular pattern and performed for not more than a total of 1,560

See other side for important additional information.

This announcement is published by the Maple Lane School Personnel. Persons with a disability who need assistance in the application or testing process, or those needing this announcement in an alternative format, may call (360) 273-3151 or Telecommunications Device for the Deaf 1-800-833-6388.

STATIONARY ENGINEER 2 – INTERMITTENT (75120)

Opens: April 4, 2000
Closes: FURTHER NOTICE

hours (nine months) during any consecutive 12-month period.

No person can become a permanent employee because of time served as an intermittent employee. Intermittent employees may be terminated at any time without advance notice.

Intermittent employees cannot transfer into full-time positions or apply for promotional examination to higher level jobs. You can apply to take state examinations for classifications for which you qualify when recruitment is done on an open-competitive basis.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

Three years of experience in the operation, maintenance and/or repair of stationary or marine high-pressure boilers and heating systems.

OR

Certificate of completion of an advanced Stationary Engineer course from an accredited vocational/technical school or community college and two years of experience in the operation, maintenance and/or repair of stationary or marine high pressure boilers and heating systems.

EXAMINATION NOTES

Applicant's failure to 1) sign, 2) fully complete their application, and/or 3) submit required information will result in a delay of their name being placed on the register and could result in rejection of their application. Any delay in the placement of your name on the register could result in your name not being considered for vacancies.

VETERANS

Veterans claiming preference must submit a copy of the first page of their DD214, DD256A discharge certificate, complete a Veteran's Preference Declaration for Competitive Applicants form, and complete part 7 and 8 of the State Application form. Veterans claiming preference for disability must submit a copy of the first page of their DD214, DD256A discharge certificate, and provide documentation of disability; complete a Veterans Preference Declaration for Competitive Applicants form, and complete part 7 and 8 of the State Application form. Veterans claiming affirmative action must submit a copy of the first page of their DD214, DD256A discharge certificate, if applicable provide documentation of disability, and complete part 7 of the State Application form.

BULLETIN NOTES

- NOTE: Background inquiries of convictions and pending criminal charges shall be completed on applicants prior to appointment to positions in the Department of Social and Health Services which are directly responsible for the supervision, care or treatment of children or developmentally disabled persons. DSHS employees, who at the time of consideration for appointment have current probationary, trial service or permanent status in such positions, are exempt from the background inquiry requirement. Information obtained from background inquiries will not necessarily preclude employment, but will be considered in determining the applicant's character, suitability and competence to perform in the position applied for and may result in a denial of employment. Applicants will be required to sign a release authorizing the background inquiry. Failure to do so shall disqualify the applicant from employment in these positions.
- NOTE: All job applicants must prove authorization to work in the United States at the time of a job offer. Documentation establishing authorization to work may include: Social Security Card, certificate of birth in the United States, or other approved documentation. A picture ID will also be required.
- NOTE: This position is within a union shop bargaining unit. As a condition of employment you are required to affiliate with the certified bargaining representative.
- NOTE: At time of appointment, applicants must possess a valid driver's license.
- NOTE: May be required to deal with verbal abuse, threats to self or family, or other forms of harassment from residents; and work, sometimes alone, in the midst of groups of residents.
- NOTE: May work with persons who have behavioral/ psychiatric/ social/ medical and/or correctional problems and who may exhibit bizarre/ noncompliant/ aggressive behavior.
- NOTE: Shifts may be changed as program needs dictate. May be required to work additional hours and/or holidays. Days off may not coincide with normal Saturday and Sunday weekends.
- NOTE: The agency has a restricted smoking policy.
- NOTE: Employees will provide their own transportation, conforming to all applicable licensing and insurance laws of the State of Washington, for jobs where travel is involved if public carriers are inadequate or state owned vehicles unavailable. When required to use their private vehicles for state business, employees are reimbursed at a standard mileage rate.
- NOTE: State employees will not be reimbursed for out-of-pocket costs for damages and deductibles related to their privately owned vehicles UNLESS the employee has been reimbursed for 1,800 or fewer miles in the 12 month period preceding the accident. Such reimbursement is limited to verified out-of-pocket expenses up to $250.00 per occurrence.